Meet John Shuman of Deertrail, Colorado, the judge of this year's Omaha Shorthorn and Polled Shorthorn Shows. John Shuman has been a successful breeder and showman of Shorthorn cattle for many years and here, he and his young son, Connie Bob, admire one of the trophies Colomeadow Shorthorns have won. At the 1961 National Western Stock Show at Denver in the largest Shorthorn show held at this point in a good many years, John Shuman exhibited the reserve grand champion bull and the grand champion female, as well as the 1st prize pair of calves and 1st prize group of three bulls. He also bred the junior champion Shorthorn steer of the show.

HOW MUCH SHOULD YOUR NEXT HERD BULL COST?

Tom Prater, extension farm management specialist at College Station, Texas says you can pay up to $1,000 for a beef herd bull in a commercial herd if he will increase your calves weaning weight by 15 lbs, assuming 24¢ calf prices. This figure would rise to $1,100 with 30¢ calves and it would decrease to $900 with 21¢ calves.

These calculations are based on the assumption that you would pay $450 for a bull of the same quality of your present herd sire that would neither increase nor decrease the weaning weights of your calves.

Computations are based on the assumption that 20 offsprings from the selected sire will be sold each year and that the 5 offspring of the daughters will be sold each year for 5 years.

It is needless to say that these are interesting figures and every operator of course has a different method of operation, so his problem can be somewhat different. It is true however, that the best investment any cowman can make these days, is to buy a better bull than he has been using, even if he owns 10 commercial cows.

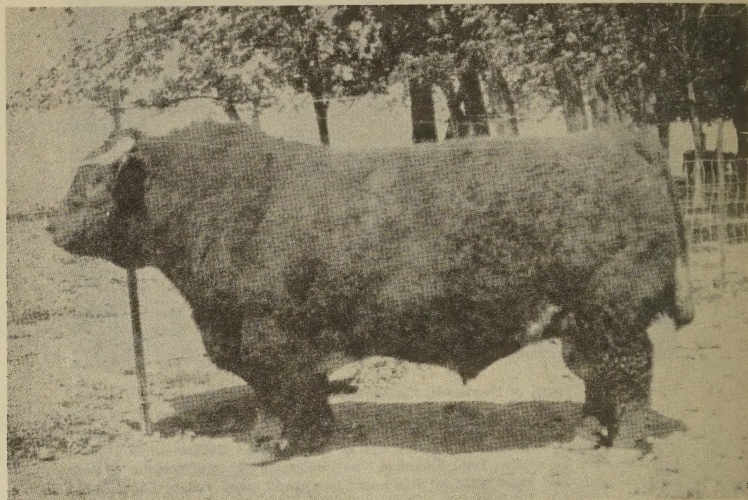

While this Omaha Shorthorn bull offering isn't as large as it has been in former years, I can assure you that it contains more strong aged bulls of herd heading quality than we have sold in a long, long time. There are State Fair champions; there are bulls that have been developed for hard use in registered and commercial herds; there are bulls with outstanding pedigrees and valuable backgrounds; bulls that can do the job in best commercial and registered herds in the land.

We will as usual, be glad to help you take care of your shipments after the purchases have been made; in this respect, Omaha again offers the finest in both truck and rail transportation. I'd like to call your attention also to the Omaha Polled Shorthorn Sale that will be held the following day, where 65 top Polled Shorthorn bulls will be sold.

Do plan now to be in Omaha, Nebraska on February 23rd and 24th to do your bull buying — it is the place where you could get the most for your money this year.

STANDARD GUARANTEE OF AMERICAN SHORTHORN BREEDERS ASSOCIATION

1. Proper care must be given by purchaser to protect breeding qualities and health of guaranteed animals.

2. All bulls are guaranteed breeders, provided they are not allowed to serve when under 14 months of age, or allowed to run with the herd when under 20 months of age. In case of failure of a bull to be a breeder, notice shall be given to the seller within six months of date of purchase, or by the time the bull is 20 months of age, if purchased under 14 months of age.

3. With the exception of heifers sold under 14 months of age, all females are guaranteed breeders. Heifers under two years of age shall not be served by a heavy or old bull. Cows or heifers sold as bred, or safe in calf, not proving to be in calf must be reported to the seller within three months after date of sale. Females over 14 months of age sold open, not settling within six months after date of sale, shall be promptly reported to the seller.

4. When an animal fails to comply with the above guarantee the seller has the option of substituting an animal of equal value to the satisfaction of the purchaser, or of having the animal returned for a trial for a period not to exceed six months. The expense of freight in such case is to be paid by the seller. If the animal is then proved to be a breeder beyond doubt it shall be returned to the purchaser at his expense. In case of dispute the return of the full purchase price, without interest, to the buyer will be considered full settlement and satisfaction to all claims. No charge for feed or maintenance shall be made by either buyer or seller. Salvage shall go to the seller. It shall be understood that the same guarantee given for the first animal shall likewise apply to any animal later substituted.

5. All animals catalogued have been tested for T. B. and are clean, and have also passed a test for Brucellosis thirty days prior to the sale, or are accompanied by a Bangs Vaccination Certificate. Announcements will be made covering animals not clear from vaccination.

6. Certificates of registry and transfer will be furnished with each animal sold. A signed pedigree application for unborn calves should be furnished with bred females, showing names and record numbers of sire and dam, as well as service date.

7. Shipment will be made as soon as possible after the close of the sale, but at purchaser's risk of loss or injury after animal is bid off. Where cattle are sold at private treaty the above terms should apply as well as for sale at auction.

All prospective buyers should check health requirements of their states.

As a safeguard to prospective buyers, every animal has successfully passed a clean abortion blood test within 30 days prior to the sale, or will have Certificates of Bangs Calftlood Vaccination, and those that are not from Accredited herds have passed a clean Tuberculin test within the same period. Health certificates will be provided with each lot sold.
